 Marriott Legacy Plano, 7121 Bishop Rd., Plano, Texas 75024, U.S.A.

DALLAS, TEXAS

“THE COMPETENT, ETHICAL & COMPASSIONATE PHYSICIAN”

COURSE DIRECTOR: Samuel Piga, MD '73

Course Description: The program consists of three parts representing the characters of a good physician that the UERMMMC College of Medicine cultivates in its graduates as stated in its mission and vision, presented in a fast moving symposium format. The first deals with topics in core clinical competencies which have been the alumni association's major emphasis for many years. The second reviews the moral principles of medical ethics and their application in today's practice. The third explores voluntary medical service and the legal framework that protects it. An e-syllabus provided through the venue's local wifi network will be available to enhance the participants' learning experience.

Target Audience: Physicians, physician assistants, clinical nurse practitioners, and nurses.

Learning Objectives: 1) To learn and understand new trends in general medical knowledge and practice; 2) To reaffirm ethical values that distinguish the medical profession; 3) To be able to do an effective and satisfying charitable work as a physician.

Accreditation: Through the Philippine Medical Association of Chicago, this program qualifies for an hour-for-hour Category 1 Credit towards the AMA Physician Recognition, up to a maximum of 9 hours.

Disclosure of Financial Interest: None of the speakers have disclosed any financial interests in the topics to be presented.
